

Chamber Notes

Chamber on Facebook

The Roosevelt County Chamber of Commerce is now on Facebook.

"Following us on Facebook will keep you in the know about what's going on at the Chamber," Executive Director Karl Terry said. Our Facebook page is linked with the new member software and you immediately know of any new members, new events, news items or Hot Deals posted."

Anyone can tap into this resource by logging into Facebook, finding our page and hitting the Like button.

Merchants booths

The Chamber has sent contracts to all vendors who had a Merchants booth at last year's County Fair. Last year's vendors have until July 29 to book their booth. After that, open spaces will be made available to new vendors. Get on the waiting list by calling 356-8541.

San Juan Mesa Wind Project, LLC of Elida was the only Five Star Club donor to the Portales Fireworks Fund. Bruce Linsten, Operations and Maintenance Project manager with the wind farm is shown presenting Chamber Executive Director Karl Terry with a $1,000 for the fund. It is the second year the company has contributed at the Five Star level. At deadline for the Communique the fund was approximately $1,500 from its goal of $10,000.
